There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Fleming county presents an unusual matrimonial case. On December 2d a marriage license was issued to Ollie Gulley and Miss Julia Bailey. On the 13th Gulley returned with the license and stated that Miss Bailey "had gone back on him," but that he had found another girl, Rachel Ann Gulley, aged 15, and got the necessary paper to marry her. On Thursday, a third license was issued to J. R. Boling, hailing from Woodford county, who had persuaded the fickle Julia Bailey to share his fortunes.

Insanity, Death or Health?

No. 2207 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., March 29, 1905.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past.

I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

Harriet O. Best
CHAIRMAN, LADIES OF HONOR, No. 97.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you bring a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

BACK FROM

Dr. A. N. Ellis has just returned to the Nation's Capitol and has had a most enjoyable time and many pleasant and interesting people. He says that it is the most remarkable place under the flag to meet those who have a varied career and that he ran across three men whom he knew when at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, in 1870, one of whom is now on the Supreme Bench, one keeping saloon and the other one in jail. The saloon man was a Captain of Cavalry who was dismissed for duplicating his pay accounts. The Doctor has much to say of having heard much of the testimony in the Smoot case, now being heard before a select committee of the Senate, and of having met the celebrated defendant himself, a genial, lovable man of many engaging qualities of mind and heart. In company with a Senator friend he called at the White House and met the President and would have stayed to dinner if he had been invited. However, Mr. Roosevelt insisted on his coming to the inauguration, which he promised to do or to send either or both Judge Dye or Charley Degman. When the President bid him good-bye he said that there would be excursion rates on all the roads.

USING DYNAMITE

To Get the M. L. Thornton and Tow Out of the Ice

Captain Cliff Torrence of Ripley, owner of the coal barges now lying at the wharf, says he will take the coal to Ripley today or burst a hamstring.

He had the towboat M. L. Thornton beating and breaking the ice all yesterday afternoon in an endeavor to cut a passage through the gorge in front of the city.

He has secured a quantity of dynamite sticks which he will explode on the ice today in his efforts to reach his home town.

The undertaking will be a risky one, but he is willing to take the chances that he may be able to relieve the coal famine that now exists in that town.

He could have sold the coal here several times over at a good profit, but he is determined to relieve the distress of his own people, provided he does not meet with disaster in the laudable attempt.

MR. EDWARD N. HOYT IN "HAMLET."

"Hamlet," under the direction of W. J. Hanley & Co., will be seen at The Washington Monday, December 26th. Edward N. Hoyt will appear as the "Melancholy Dane," and many people will enjoy his interpretation, his independence of thought and delight in many of his new modes of conveying what he conceives to be the real character of "Hamlet." Originality in these days must surely be welcomed by thoughtful persons, and as Mr. Hoyt's "Hamlet" has been etched out of Shakespeare's play with reverential care and skill, it will commend itself to all real lovers of the drama. The company has been carefully selected and all the special scenery and accessories are carried.

Pittsburghers are going to have something more than ice water during the Christmas holidays, 12,000 jugs having arrived there a few days ago on one boat. They range in size from a quart to five gallons.

Worse and more of it! Rivermen and others interested in navigation are disappointed. It was hoped and expected that navigation would be resumed when the low water season ended, but it now threatens to dash their hopes and expectations to the winds. It is not known how long navigation may be suspended, as the river is low, the current sluggish, and no one can tell what may happen if the river becomes filled with ice.

COTTAGEVILLE.

Miss Bessie Dodd has returned from King's Mills, O.
Dr. L. J. Winder has sold his property at this place to Mr. Samuel Redman.
Rev. Robert Tolle of Cynthia preached at the Cottageville Schoolhouse Monday and Tuesday.
Miss Ella Cooper, aged 21, whose illness we have noted, died of consumption December 8th. The interment was in Ebenezer Cemetery, with funeral services by Rev. T. F. Walton.
Mr. S. E. McCarahan, formerly of this place, but now a prosperous farmer of Illinois, became tired of "the life of single blessedness" and recently married Miss Clara, who is also well known here. Good wishes for their career.

The tobacco growers are very uneasy for fear of a failure of the Growers Association to be able to handle the crop.
Miss Bertie Lee Calvert is with Miss Lizzie Clay Stone for several days visit before returning to her home at Grimes's Landing, O.
Messrs. George and Lee Wood are slowly recovering from severe bruises caused by their horse kicking and running and pitching them out onto the rough pike.
We have not yet seen or heard of a partridge in our vicinity this season and rabbits are fewer than common, and it is but seldom we hear a gun, an unusual occurrence.
After an operation performed at Dayton for an inward cancer last Thursday, Mrs. George Hutton died Monday morning and was brought home Tuesday, and after a sorrowful scene of lamentation by the husband and children and other near relatives and friends, and very appropriate remarks over the body made by Rev. Gardner in the way of encouragement to the living, was buried Wednesday about three miles East of Flemingburg.

Winter is now prevailing in good fashion with a three inch snow on the ground before the appearance of but very little wheat growth in the country. We are thus reminded that in sowing wheat it is a case of sowing or an application to the highest Court in the universe for a crop, and the case is pending until that Court (Providence) decides whether it shall be one cent and cost, or whatever of gain it sees cause to allow, according to the workings of divine influences.

In the Circuit Court Thursday Frank Armstrong, the Fifth Ward druggist, was fined $20 and costs in two cases for selling liquor without a license. Two other cases were filed away.
Charles Jolly, formerly of Germantown, now of Jerome, Arizona, was one of the lucky winners in the recent guessing contest of The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune on the total vote of Ohio. Mr. Jolly had five guesses and his prizes amounted to $2,530.

Representative Kehoe had a talk with Representative Burton, Chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, Thursday, concerning improvements on the Ohio river at the mouth of the Big Sandy river. Mr. Kehoe believes the Committee will allow an appropriation to continue this work.

Rev. Dr. John Barbour was in Ashland Wednesday in consultation with Dr. Condit and the Principal of the Pikeville School in regard to the interests of the Institute. On his return home, and while the cars were passing Portsmouth, he saw the flames burst out of the windows of the Toy Pistol Factory, which was destroyed by fire and in which one girl was killed and a score of others more or less injured. The fire was caused by an explosion and was caused off by the flames, were compelled away.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."
Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in the country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing no matter where it comes from. Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Printing is a bad investment—it's more than a blank. A business man's every or booklet is like a travel and to get the first impression is good and the chances of doing business on the strength of it are good. We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it. HAVE THE DAVIS PRINTING HOUSE PRINT IT. PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING.

Christmas..
Hints to Lady and Gentlemen Friends.
This is the season of the year that we always have the pleasure of waiting on hundreds of lady patrons. We enjoy it, too. Wish there were more holiday seasons, for the ladies cannot come too often. We are aware that good old St. Nick finds it very hard work filling men's socks with suitable gifts. A MAN LIKES SOMETHING HE CAN WEAR. But have a care; he doesn't want "bargain counter" stuff; he won't wear antiquated neckwear. Get his present where he buys his wearables. Get them HERE, and then you can't go wrong. This whole store is a veritable Christmas tree of gifts. Beautiful Ties, Faultless Shirts, just right Underwear, substantial Half Hose, fine Linen Handkerchiefs, good Collars and Cuffs, Handsome Umbrellas, Silk Suspenders, Silk and Wool Mullers. Let us be your official stocking filer, and "he" will be highly pleased.
